Brigand Outpost Log

Today's been boring.

Today was as boring as yesterday.

Someone came by today,
We chased them off.

Another boring day.

If I had to decide now, I say today was the most boring.

Vincent stopped by, made sure we are doing good work. Said he's sorry we're bored.

So boring today, we talked all day about Vincent's visit.
We have determiend there are 239534 blades of grass around this guard tower.

Today someone brought a dragon by. I contacted Vincent that we need more brigands.

We hope one day we have some food to cook in our cauldron.

Vincent appeared out of nowhere today, with other brigands! It seems they have installed a magical means of transport to our guard tower. I better tell our guys to stop working on their tans.

Boring again.

Some cows came by and ate the grass today.

How exciting today was!
Several of our fellows came by with a Prisoner!
They stated he isn't so forthcoming with information and they are taking him to headquarters. I asked why hasn't Vincent installed one of those magical transport devices to Headquarters, but they don't know. They took off to the moongate.
